Our strategic collaborations with partners across various industries reflect a deep commitment to broadening market reach and delivering customer-centric financial services. This initiative further solidifies MNC Kapital's position as a leading provider of integrated digital financial solutions, while accelerating digital transformation and financial inclusion in Indonesia.

Commenting on the partnership, Tommy Indra Gunawan, President Director of BPR Bank Kota Bogor, said,

Rapid technological advancements, evolving customer expectations, and increasing competition from fintechs present significant challenges for BPR in driving business growth. Like it or not, digital transformation is no longer optional, BPR must adapt to stay relevant. However, the reality is that limited capital and operational resources remain major obstacles. Developing robust digital platforms requires considerable investment, and pursuing such initiatives without adequate support could compromise the financial stability of many BPRs.
